9. IMPORTANT MATTERS which participants should take into consideration when writing creative writing:
 - The content : Should be interesting, stimulating and original
 - Topic: A creative, imaginative presentation of the topic with certain surprising elements, will surely enhance the value of the work.
 - Fine language skills, a comfortable, interesting and unpretentious manner of writing and the ability to articulate your thoughts and feelings in a meaningful way, will contribute towards the success of your work. Supporting technical aspects, e.g. paragraph arrangement, sentence building, variation, length of sentences and punctuation are equally important.
 - The ability to adhere to the prescribed number of words (more or less).

- As any piece of good writing, it should consist of an introduction, body and conclusion.
